Correspondence by Subject Matter:

A. Correspondence Addressing Settlement Agreement

Form Letters See Schedule 1 attached hereto for list of correspondence.	Number of Correspondence: 246 (of which, 8 are duplicates) <ul style="list-style-type: none">• 4 anonymously submitted Summary: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Generally urge the Court to “reject the agreement between Cofina bondholders and the Financial Oversight and Management Board.”• Claims that the “agreement” will (a) “drag Puerto Rico into another economic crisis, due to the imposition of more austerity measures, cuts in public services and pension, and would lead to a new debt default” and (b) “succumb the Puerto Rican people to 40 years of further austerity measures to pay a debt the US Government refuses to audit.”• Generally state that the sender “stand[s] with the Puerto Rican people” against the “agreement” or simply urge the Court to reject the “agreement.”• Many letters do not indicate whether the sender is a COFINA creditor.

² Two (2) letters from ECF No. 3859 are omitted from this summary because they are dated before August 1, 2018.

The outcome of the COFINA restructuring casts doubt on all priority-lien revenue bonds commonly issued by states and local governments.○ The Oversight Board are self-appointed members who put the Island into a partially illegal debt for personal and corporate profiteering.○ Approving the settlement would validate the “dubious vehicle” of COFINA “designed specifically to evade the constitutional debt limit and balanced budget requirements of the Puerto Rico constitution.”○ Bondholders “should not have to watch as an outcome is manipulated so as to deny us due process. What is going on should not be allowed to take place.”• One letter asks why the funds held at BNYM are covered under the settlement agreement,

B. Correspondence Addressing COFINA Plan of Adjustment

Objections to COFINA Plan See Schedule 3 attached hereto for list of correspondence.	Number of Correspondence: 5 Summary: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Letters, for various reasons, objecting to the COFINA Plan: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> “I do not agree with the approval of the COFINA plan of adjustment.” (translation) If the “agreement recently reached by the Puerto Rico government and the creditors of Cofina” is approved, Puerto Rico will file another bankruptcy “because we [cannot afford] those payments.” “The people of Puerto Rico deserve better than this terrible plan.” Objects to the commutation of insurance policies with respect to Senior COFINA Bond Claims (Ambac) and Senior COFINA Bond Claims (National). Letters do not indicate whether the sender is a COFINA creditor.
Junior COFINA Bondholders See Schedule 4 attached hereto for list of correspondence. Amicus Letter – COFINA Plan See Schedule 5 attached hereto for list of correspondence.	Number of Correspondence: 1 Summary: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Letter from non-profit entity (Espacios Abiertos), attaching materials co-authored by Joseph Stiglitz relating to Puerto Rico’s economic condition for the court to consider in confirming the COFINA plan of adjustment.• Disaster Capitalism Comes to Puerto Rico, by Martin Guzman, Joseph E. Stiglitz:<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ The terms of COFINA’s restructuring do not provide enough relief for Puerto Rico to be able to achieve future growth.○ Puerto Rico’s annual debt payments would increase from $420 million in FY2019 to almost $1 billion in FY2041.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ The fiscal plan is flawed. It is based on new growth projections that assume that Hurricane Maria provided a net positive shock to Puerto Rico. ○ As long as the money needed for investments is going to pay bondholders, sustained growth is impossible. • An Analysis of Puerto Rico's Debt Relief Needs to Restore Debt Sustainability, by Pablo A. Gluzmann, Martin M. Guzman, Joseph E. Stiglitz: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ To obtain the necessary reduction in Puerto Rico's debt to restore debt sustainability, there will need to be a full cancellation of interest payments that are scheduled not to be repaid in the fiscal plan, plus a face value reduction between 45 to 65 percent of current debt of $51.9 billion. ○ Under assumptions of the fiscal plan and other more realistic scenarios, and dismissing unjustifiably optimistic positive assumed effects of structural reforms on GNP growth for 2017-2026, there will need to be a full cancellation of interest payments not scheduled for repayment in the fiscal plan plus a face value reduction between 50 to 80 percent of current debt of $51.9 billion. ○ To deal with the uncertainty that will underlie the implementation of the fiscal plan and debt restructuring, the restructuring process could include GNP linked bonds that align debt payments with PR's capacity to pay. These bonds improve the sustainability of the restructured debt and align the incentives of the debt and the creditors such that the creditors would also benefit from a stronger recovery.
Letter in Support of Plan See Schedule 6 attached hereto for list of correspondence.	Number of Correspondence: 1 Summary: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Individual holding Junior COFINA Bonds and GO Bonds supporting the COFINA Plan, but commenting on the terms of the new COFINA Bonds. • "In a situation where the pie of funds available for distribution is shrinking the fact that all

Puerto Rico bondholders must not be forced to bear the brunt of government fraud and deceit.○ Puerto Ricans cannot live with this terrible debt. Retirees need their retirement to survive.○ It is unfair that retired teachers must find work to survive because of poor management of retirement funds by inept politicians. Teacher salaries and retirement should not be affected.○ Sender will be bankrupt if the government continues to cut his benefits.○ Austerity during a depression makes our debt problem worse.○ Payment of funds to COFINA is in violation of democracy.
